Executive Management Team Biographies:

Joseph Kearney, Executive Director

Joseph J. Kearney was appointed on June 1, 2010 as the Executive Director of the Nassau County Industrial Development Agency. He has had a long and distinguished career in both the public and private sectors. Prior to his appointment he served as counsel to the Chairman and CEO of National Grid USA. He played an integral part in the merger of Brooklyn Union Gas and LILCO as well as the creation and formation of the Long Island Power Authority. He also played an active role in the merger of Keyspan and National Grid. Mr. Kearney was the senior member of the Hempstead Town Board during his 14 year tenor as a member of that board.

Previously counsel to the law firm of Nixon Peabody, LLP in their Garden City office, Mr. Kearney entered into the private practice of law in 1975. He has also worked as a law secretary to Judge Richard C. Delin while the judge served as Nassau County Court Judge, Acting Supreme Court Justice and Acting Surrogate. In addition, Mr. Kearney is a former member of the Nassau County Board of Assessment Review. He also saw service with the United States Central Intelligence Agency.

Mr. Kearney graduated from Cathedral College in Brooklyn and also attended the Immaculate Conception Seminary in Huntington, NY. In 1975, Mr. Kearney received his law degree from St. John's University School of Law. He was formerly an adjunct professor of law at the Suffolk University Law School and the New England School of Law in Boston, Massachusetts. He is a former member of the College Council of the State University of New York at Old Westbury and former member of the board of the National Foundation of the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart.

Joseph Foarile, Chief Financial Officer

Joseph F. Foarile was appointed on June 1, 2010 as the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) of the Nassau County Industrial Development.

Mr. Foarile manages the financial operations and reporting for the NCIDA, performs monthly financial closings and prepares the financial statements, establishes and maintains budgets, establishes and maintains monthly Metrics reporting, reviews all perspective project applicant background reports, prepares Board Meeting financial and Metric reports, manages the year-end audit, and performs ad hoc financial analysis as needed, to ensure compliance with all NYS, regulatory, and GAAP reporting requirements.

Prior to joining the NCIDA, Mr. Foarile had over 30 years of accounting and financial experience primarily in the financial services industry.

Mr. Foarile graduated from Hofstra University in 1978, with an Accounting Degree. His first position out of college was that of a Tax Auditor with the Internal Revenue Service in Manhattan. Mr. Foarile left the IRS to become an employee of Citicorp, in their Credit Card Division in Melville, NY. He later became Director of Accounting for a subsidiary of Citicorp, and worked for Citicorp for over 10 years. After leaving Citicorp, Mr. Foarile was a consultant supporting the merger of the Chemical and Manufacturers Hanover banks. For the next 17 years Mr. Foarile worked as an accounting and finance consultant, primarily in the financial services industry, on various mergers, projects, and initiatives, for many different companies.

A lifelong resident of Nassau County, Mr. Foarile and his wife Ann, reside in Valley Stream with their two sons.
